

Trenholm State
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Now Accepting Applications for

PRESIDENT

Trenholm State Community College, a comprehensive community college with one main campus and one instructional site, seeks a visionary and experienced senior administrator, who will provide exceptional leadership as the President. The President reports to the Chancellor of the Alabama Community College System.

Application materials must be received by 12:00 p.m. CST on November 15, 2021.

POSITION SUMMARY

The President is the chief executive officer of the college and reports directly to the Chancellor of the Alabama Community College System. The President is responsible for business and community engagement, advancement, campus culture, and the student experience. The President is a champion for removing barriers to success through student-focused actions and support of expanded comprehensive services to students. The President is responsible for administering and supervising the total college program in the assigned college. As chief executive officer, the President must delegate authority and yet retain final responsibility for the effective operation of the college.

Responsibilities

- Cooperate with and support the ACCS Board and the Chancellor to enhance and promote the continued development and effectiveness of the ACCS as a comprehensive provider of post-secondary education and training.
- Demonstrate effective leadership and management skills within the College and external community, including leading by example and participation.
- Enhance, foster, cultivate and promote strong, positive relationships with local business and industry, community organizations, K-12 schools, and elected state and community leaders.
- Fundraise and develop a strong, responsive College foundation.
- Conduct appropriate long-range strategic planning and budget formation, implementation, and adherence.
- Prepare and submit an annual, fiscally-responsible balanced operating budget and properly administer the approved budget.
- Institute policies and procedures that are consistent with ACCS Board policies and Chancellor's procedures, and that ensure compliance with, and effective administration of, Federal student financial aid and grant programs.
- Administer and operate all affairs of the college within state law, federal law, ACCS policies and guidelines, College policy, and in conformance with applicable accreditation and auditing standards.
- Supervise and maintain College buildings, grounds, and equipment.
- Develop economic and workforce development training and educational offerings that facilitate the growth of business and industry in Alabama.
- Develop and implement effective recruitment, marketing, and retention plans.
- Employ strategies that allow easy access to education, training, and career pathways for historically underserved populations.

- Develop a culture of continuous improvement in teaching and learning that leads to increased student success.
- Work to ensure optimal student usage of STARS transfer guides for minimal loss of credit when students transfer to four-year universities and colleges, and a successful reverse transfer of credits for students from four-year institutions back to the College in order to complete a degree.
- Employ innovative strategies to ensure underprepared students have a viable pathway to success.
- Implement a variety of student success strategies that effectively promote completion of formal College awards, attainment of industry-recognized credentials, and preparation for jobs in Alabama.
- Employ and retain qualified and productive personnel through the implementation of an effective human resources program.
- Understand and follow Alabama law in the appointment, supervision, disciplining, and dismissing of College employees.
- Always display a highly professional attitude and demeanor.
- Communicate and consult with the Chancellor regarding material items of management and operation of the College.
- Effectively manage and resolve crises, problems, or conflicts.
- Expand existing, and create or develop new or innovative programming and educational opportunities (both credit and non-credit) to increase community engagement, promote workforce development, and generate revenue that supports ACCS missions and goals.
- Promote an organizational culture of professional excellence, customer service, innovation, quality services, and continuous improvement.

Qualifications

- A minimum of a Master's degree from a nationally or regionally accredited college or university or a Bachelor's degree from a nationally or regionally accredited college or university with demonstrated management experience in the education field is required. Earned doctorate from a nationally or regionally accredited college or university is desired.
- Substantial experience in a senior management position in higher education or substantial experience in a senior management position in a field outside of higher education where such experience is deemed relevant to, and provides a basis for judging, the candidate's capability to serve as a community college president.
- Demonstrated experience in oral and written communications confirming the ability to effectively research ideas, organize thoughts, and persuade diverse internal and external audiences.

- Knowledge of the mission and role of public two-year institutions, particularly their important role in community economic development and workforce development is required.
 - Experience in interpreting organizational needs, programs, and activities to the employees, community organizations and agencies, area school systems, the Legislature, and providing services training for business and industry is required.

Educational Philosophy

- Committed to the community college concept of quality education.
 - Committed to the professional development of faculty and staff.
 - Student-oriented in the sense of recognizing that all aspects of the college are to facilitate learning and student development, with the student obtaining a level of competency and the student being kept informed of progress.
 - Committed to the offering of programs that are relevant to the current needs of business and industry.
 - Demonstrated knowledge of the academic transfer programs and evidence of ability to work with the four-year institutions.
 - Demonstrated knowledge of the technical programs and evidence of ability to work with business and industry.

Personal Characteristics

- Demonstrated sensitivity to all facets of the community, including the needs of the various groups of which it is comprised.
 - Demonstrated ability to communicate well, both orally and in writing.
 - Demonstrated ability to work as a team member, which includes all segments of the college faculty, staff, students, and governing boards.
 - Demonstrated leadership, decision-making, and coordinating abilities in a complex organization.
 - Demonstrated ability to project a positive public image.

About Trenholm State Community College

H. Councill Trenholm State Community College is a two-year public institution of higher education located in Montgomery, Alabama. The College is one of 24 community and technical colleges under the Alabama Community College System (ACCS), governed by a Board of Trustees appointed by the Governor, who also serves as chair.

In May 1963, the Alabama Legislature authorized the creation of H. Councill Trenholm State Technical College, one of several public postsecondary occupational education institutions. Construction began August 19, 1965, and was completed on August 8, 1966. Classes started August 15, 1966. The College continued to grow; during the the1971-72 school year, the physical plant was expanded to include the new warehouse facility and the Related Subjects Building. The Allied Health Occupations Building was completed on April 17, 1979, and the Joseph Dickerson Culinary Arts and Conference Centre was officially dedicated in 1995.

On April 27, 2000, the Alabama State Board of Education, upon the recommendation of the Chancellor of Postsecondary Education, approved the intent to merge John M. Patterson State Technical School and H. Councill Trenholm State Technical College. The Colleges officially merged in March 2002. John M. Patterson State Technical School was opened in September 1962 on 43 acres of land and named a technical college by action of the State Board of Education in 1974. H. Councill Trenholm State Technical College was named for the late Dr. Harper Councill Trenholm, a past president of Alabama State University, located in Montgomery, AL.

H. Councill Trenholm State Technical College was granted accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award associate degrees in December 2014. In May 2015, H. Councill Trenholm State Technical College officially became H. Councill Trenholm State Community College. The College offers certificate programs, associate degrees, adult learning opportunities, personal development opportunities, business and industry training, and support of economic development for the central Alabama River Region.

H. Councill Trenholm State Community College awards the Associates Degree in Arts and Sciences, as well as the Associate of Applied Science Degree in the following: Accounting, Entrepreneurship, General Business, Management, Office Administration, Child, and Human Development, Computer Information Systems, Automotive Manufacturing, and Automation, Architecture & Engineering Design, Electrical, Industrial Systems & Automation, Precision Machining, Robotics/Mechatronics, Welding, A/C & Refrigeration Technology, Automotive Service, Culinary Arts/Hospitality Management, Graphic Design, Dental Assisting, Emergency Medical Services, Medical Assisting Technology, Medical Radiologic Technology, Registered Nursing, Respiratory Care Therapy, and Diagnostic Medical Sonography.

Additionally, certificate program options include Automotive Collision Repair, Diesel Mechanics, Welding, Practical Nursing, and Truck Driver Training.

Through its open-door policy and special recruitment efforts, Trenholm State Community College helps disadvantaged students obtain educational opportunities.
